7th of December, as a day of thanksgiving throughout our entire country, it is to be hoped, and reasonably to be expected, that there will be concert with this action on the part of all the Governors, so that our nation and State thanksgivings shall be one and the same occasion. The Governors of Maine and New Hampshire have already issued their thanksgiving proclamations, the former appointing the 23d of November and the latter the 30th of that mouth to

WE have before us the prospectus of the "Patriot and Truth Teller, a paper to be published in Warrenton, North Carolina, the motto of which is: "The iliberty of the press, the second of Tyrants." The dom, the scourge of Tyrants." The dom, the scourge of Tyrants." The proposed editor was a raging rebel during the war, hence the propriety of the motto he has adopted. He says in his prospectus that "years ago, before the prospectus that "y liberty of the press, the shield of free-dom, the scourge of Tyrants," The

THE Fenian congress, which was lately in session at Philadelphia, is reported to be in secret session at New York now, but it is probably only a few of the chief magnates, as the delegates who went to Philadelphia have returned home. A military plan for gaining freedom in Ireland has been submitted and discussed, but the chiefs have not yet announced the day when said freedom will be gained.

The Lonisville Journal has an article against the proposed resort to the importation of Coolies to supply the place of negro laborers. It thinks the experiment we have had for two hundred years with one race of savages ought to be sufficient, and it is clearly of the point on that the Asiatic man is worse than the African. The Journal favors a resort to Europe for new laborers, as elements in the body politic. Heaven save us from another "irrepressible the subject. It gives the suffrage at once to colored soldiers, and to colored men and Indians, able to read and write, and who were free previous to rebruary 22, 1885; and to the negroes who were freed on that day by the amendment to the State Constitution, it gives the suffrage, on the same terms, ten years after that date.

Under this provision we have no doubt the Governor will feel himself amply at liberty to take care not only that the laws are faithfully executed, but also that those who under their each faithfully executed, but also that those who under their each faithfully executed. Hiothy Companies A few eyenings since as a number of gentlemen were sitting in front of the American Hotel, a couple of rustic looking datasets came by and made an attempt to prevail on a little specimen of the camine species to follow them off by snapping their fingers to him. A gentleman whistled softly to penny, and he came back wagging his tall, when one of the aforesaid damsels turned round and saluted him with the following: "Why G—d you, what do you mean?" It is needless to say our friend had nothing to say.

Forner says, in the Philadel-phia Press: "The vagrant who offered to add his rags and wretchedness to the be observed as the annual religious lestival; but it is reasonable to suppose that they will now substitute for those that they will now substitute for those wealth of Astor, for the purpose of being able to say that his partner and himself able to say that his partner and himself able to say that his partner and himself. were the two richest men in the country, was not more generous than the Demo-cratic leaders who propose to become honest and powerful by associating themselves with President Johnson

The bill introduced into the Tennessee Senate by John Trimble, and said to be likely to pass, is in necordance with President Johnson's ideas on the the sahject. It gives the suffrage at once to colored soldiers, and to colored and to colored soldiers, and the colored soldiers are colored soldiers.

Election Returns.

We have the following additiona ems of information in regard to the BARBOUR COUNTY.

We have no correspondence from this caunty. The Shepherdstown Register of Saturday, however, firmishes us partial returns, by which it seems that the vote for Judge stands: Hall (Union) 404, Kønnedy (Democrat) 465. Several townships remain to be heard from. The Register informs us that Edmund Pendleton, H. E. Nichols, editor of the New Erd, and several others were placed under arrest at Martinsburg on the day of election for attempts to violate the election have. It also states that "se rejected votes (challenged we suppose it means) were taken in Averill township."
